

I feel that I am patriotic. I feel the government should have wide authority to do what is necessary to protect our state. I believe VoIP needs to have backdoors which will require the same title 18 requests as wiretaps now.

However, I strongly believe that tapping other forms of data communication should be disuaded against unless utterly necessary. Please ensure that our data is safe from casual governmental browsing.